TWILIGHT TALES

VOLUME 3 OF 6

STORY AND ART BY
YUICHI KUMAKURA

The King of Bandits
Can steal it all
In the blink of an eye

Over upon a midnight dreary, a thief named Jorg was weak and weary
Many strange and forgotten lands he did traverse and did explore.
His companion was a bird, an odd one called Alf
Who possessed a strange language, a less than honest vocabulary.
"Wake up, Jorg" Alf muttered, "all around is lost glory!"

Then this strong bird's wing, changed Jorg's softness into willow
As he set about to do the thing he truly did adore.
So the albatross sat proudly on Jorg's plumed best song toady
While his beady eyes explored the treasure stashed upon the floor.
One rare thing that Alf did crave his feathers all a greedy flutter
And his beak commenced a terrible dull roar:
"Quoth the albatross, 'Let's steal some more!'"
